How to Use Roadshow Application

- When the application first launches, you'll see a splash screen that displays a disclaimer about the application and click Close to exit the disclaimer

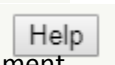

- Next you'll see the state of Louisiana outlined and highlighted

- There are buttons at the top right of the screen that allows you select different boundaries

- The ⌂ button brings you back to initial extent of the application

- The Help button brings up this document that helps the user understand how to use the document

- If you want to display parishes, click on the parishes button
- This brings up the parish boundaries and a box at the lower left hand corner that has a drop down list of all parishes in the state

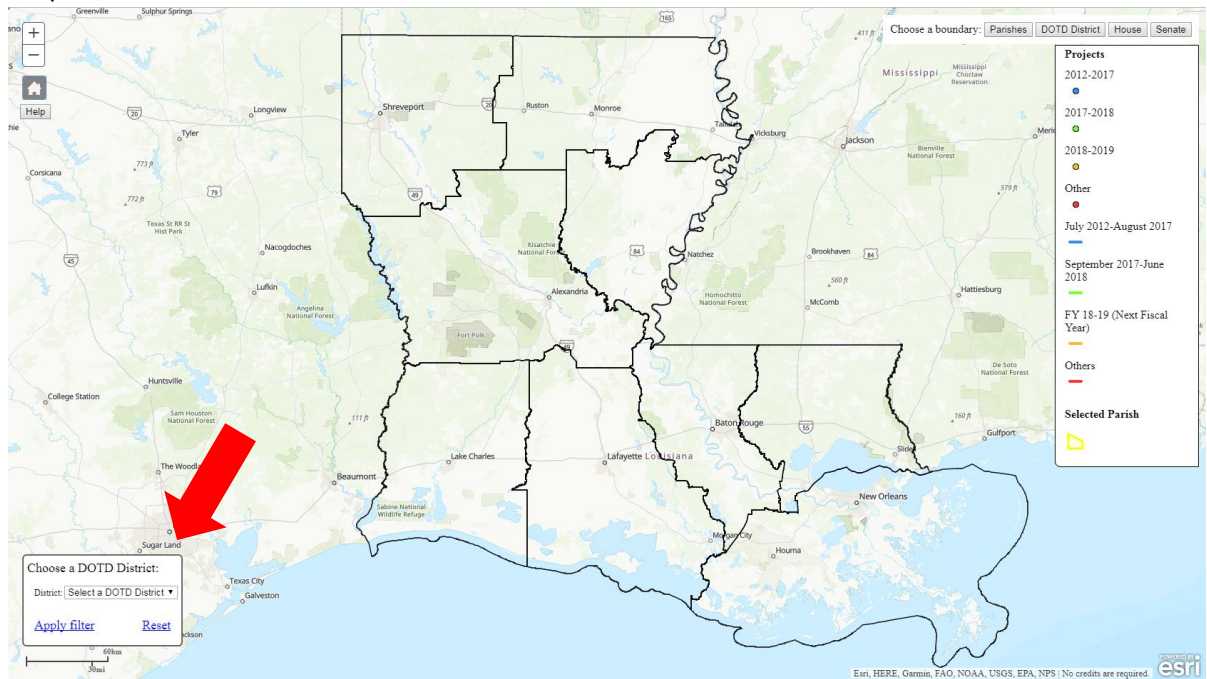

- After selecting a parish that you want to view projects for, click the "Apply filter" button and the map will zoom to the selected parish

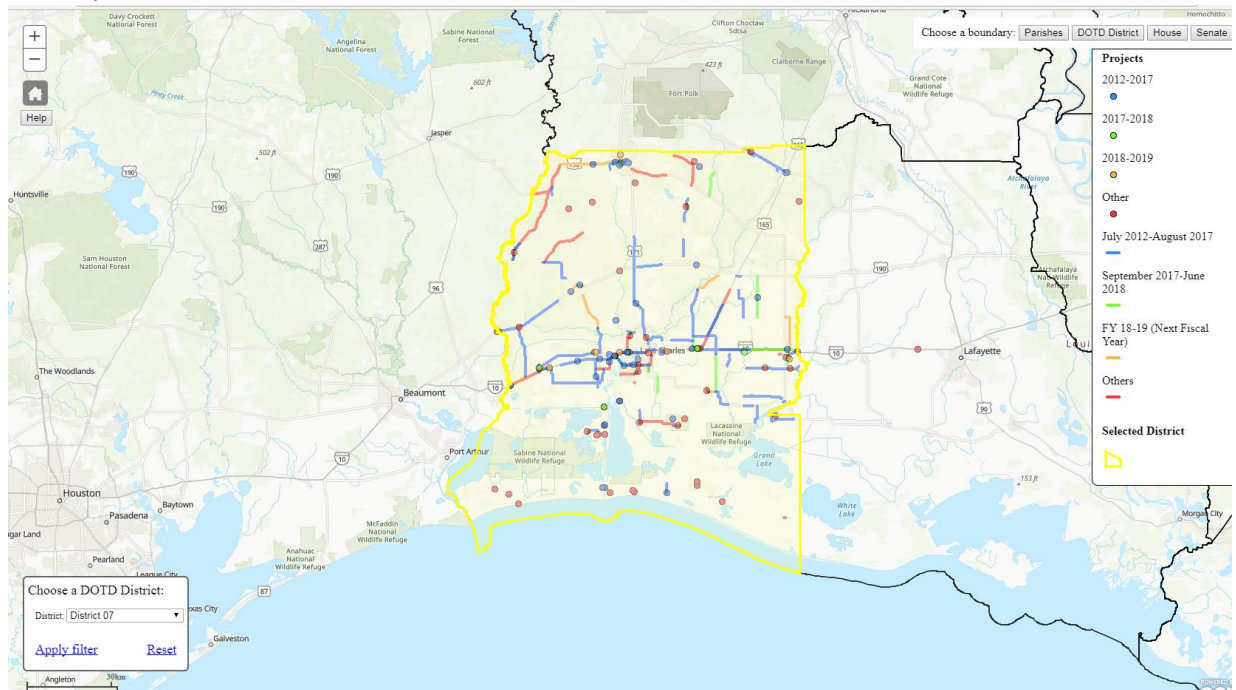

- If you want to change parishes, you can select a new parish from the drop down list and click the "Apply filter" button
- The "Reset" button will clear any selection that you have chosen
- The "Reset" button MUST be clicked before clicking a different boundary button

- If you want to display DOTD Districts, click on the DOTD District button
- This brings up the DOTD District boundaries and a box at the lower left hand corner that has a drop down list of all DOTD Districts in the state

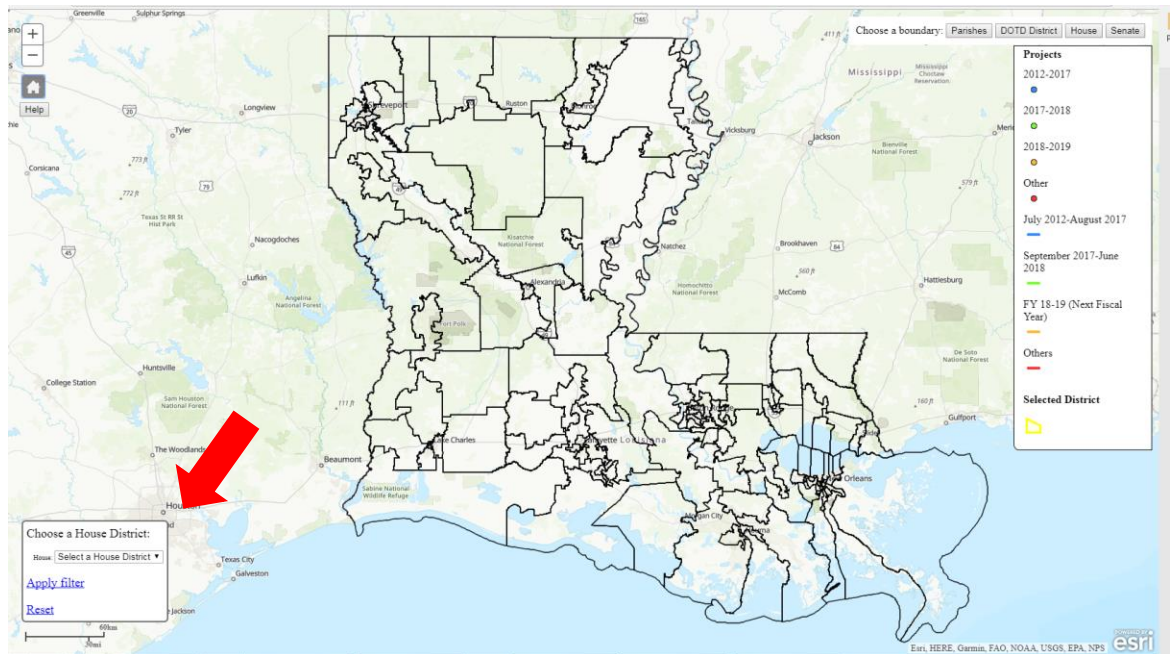

- After selecting a district that you want to view projects for, click the "Apply filter" button and the map will zoom to the selected district

- If you want to change district, you can select a new district from the drop down list and click the "Apply filter" button
- The "Reset" button will clear any selection that you have chosen
- The "Reset" button MUST be clicked before clicking a different boundary button

- If you want to display House Districts, click on the House District button
- This brings up the House District boundaries and a box at the lower left hand corner that has a drop down list of all House Districts in the state

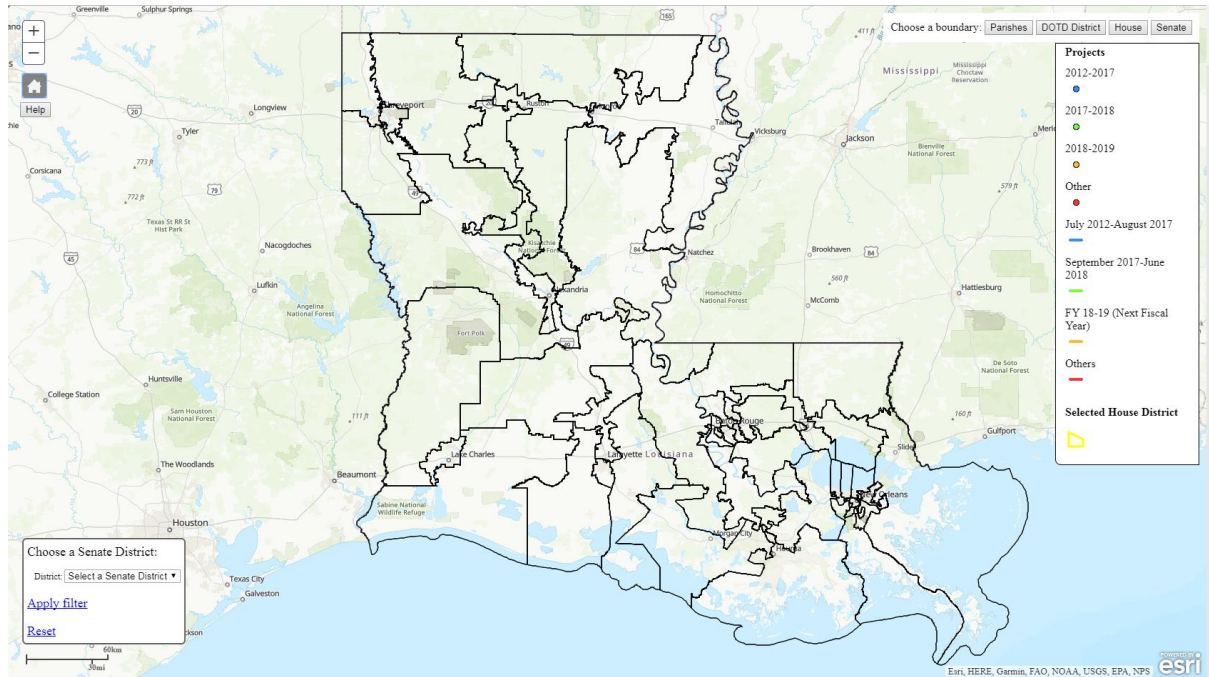

- After selecting a district that you want to view projects for, click the "Apply filter" button and the map will zoom to the selected district

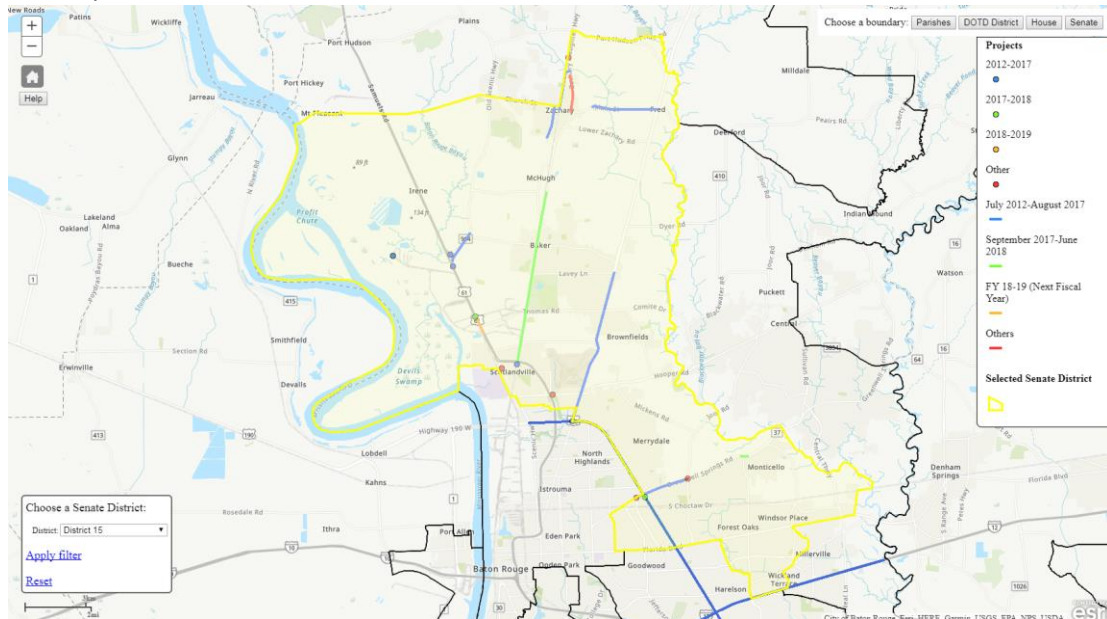

- If you want to change district, you can select a new district from the drop down list and click the "Apply filter" button
- If you want to change district, you can select a new district from the drop down list and click the "Apply filter" button
- The "Reset" button will clear any selection that you have chosen
- The "Reset" button MUST be clicked before clicking a different boundary button

- If you want to display Senate Districts, click on the Senate District button
- This brings up the Senate District boundaries and a box at the lower left hand corner that has a drop down list of all Senate Districts in the state

- After selecting a district that you want to view projects for, click the "Apply filter" button and the map will zoom to the selected district

- If you want to change district, you can select a new parish from the drop down list and click the "Apply filter" button
- If you want to change district, you can select a new district from the drop down list and click the "Apply filter" button
- The "Reset" button will clear any selection that you have chosen
- The "Reset" button MUST be clicked before clicking a different boundary button